Purim Mask

What are you getting dressed up as this year? What mask are you wearing? How fun and exciting is Purim. The joy, the happiness. How wonderful it is to look back and see the great miracle and celebration the Jews have from the story of Purim. G-d Himself has a L'chaim with us on Purim.

Let us ask though, the Jews in Persia during that period, how did they feel? They were scared and anxious. G-d how did He feel? G-d had to wear a mask, He knew what was really going to happen.

A lady in Israel wrote something profound about the killing in the Yeshiva a week ago. She was at a wedding in another town when she found out. Her son called her from Jerusalem. As the emotions began to overcome her, she looked at the bride shining with happiness. She decided that she will not tell anyone. Why should the happy couples wedding be ruined by a terrorist. She put on her mask.

Have you ever dressed up so well that others did not recognise you? They thought you were someone else. You knew the truth.

Purim teaches us not think that all is revealed, many things are sheilded from us for our own good. Something we percieve as bad could have a smiling face behind it.

Have Happy Shabbos!

Rabbi Shalom White
