A Blessing, a curse

Once a guy had a dream. He found his soul floating above his body. An angel greeted him and told him that he will now see the abode of the souls in heaven. All exited, they go into a building. A person was sitting on a couch getting served all the greatest foods, fanning, and the most elegant music was being played. Accordingly he asked the angel, "I guess this is the treatment we get in Gan Eden (heaven)". The angel smiled and said, "no, it is their Gehinom (hell)".

What is a blessing and what is a curse?

The Alter Rebbe tells us that all the curses which are mentioned in this weeks parsha are really blessings which are so great that they can only be revealed in the way of a curse. Hashem wants to give us the greatest blessings and a life that can be so great, only we need to be warned not to do acts which will inevitably cause us great hardship. These are ramifications which block the most sublime blessings.

Have a great Shabbat.

Warm regards,

Rabbi Shalom White
 Chabad Lubavitch WA
