NUMBER 42 – PARSHAS RE'EH

29/30 August 2008 – 28/29 Av 5768

Where are you looking from?

The era directly following the passing of Rebbe DovBer, the Maggid of Mezritch, was terrible for the Jews. After a long period of benign neglect, the government began to promulgate many new anti-Semitic decrees. Additionally, to add insult to injury, a number of plagues and natural disasters struck the local communities.

At about that time, one of the Maggid's principal disciples had a dream in which his departed mentor appeared to him. The disciple asked his master to explain an apparent anomaly: Departed tzaddikim (righteous people) are described as having more power to affect nature after their passing than they had while still mortal; why then did all those calamities, that the Rebbe's prayers had averted while he was still alive, resume upon his passing?

Rabbi DovBer explained. "While on this world I recognized evil as such and prayed to G-d to save us, and thank G-d my prayers were often answered. Now I reside in the world of truth, and from my new perspective I divine the rationale of the Divine. I now see how everything G-d visits on the world, even that which is apparently negative, is in reality part of G-d's celestial plans for our ultimate good.

"You, however, who are alive and still perceive the iniquity implicit in human suffering--you pray to G-d, and you ward off the evil."

Dear Chabad Community,

As some of you may know, the annual Yokine Community Fair is once again on this year, and is being held on 2nd November 2008. This year the organising committee has been kind enough to give Chabad the full rights to sell ALL the Kosher food on the day, as well as have a number of stalls to sell Judaica, have craft activities and more.

There is also a major raffle that will be drawn on the day. There are 20 prizes to be won, the first being a trip for two to Bali, for 5 nights with breakfast included. For every ticket Chabad sells, we get to keep $2, which means that if we sell a whole heap, we can make some good money for the Shul, in addition to whatever we make on the day of the fete.

Daniel and Stacey Keyser, together with Shalom are organising the Chabad stalls, and the selling of the raffle tickets. We are desperate for lots of volunteers before and on the day of the fete to help out with the selling of raffle tickets, preparing the stalls, and the running of the stalls on the day.

If you can help out by selling even just one book of tickets (10 tickets all together), or if you and your family would like to purchase some tickets to be in the chance of winning a great prize, then please contact either Shalom, Daniel (0400 978 883) or Stacey (0413 807 152) who can supply you with the ticket books. Tickets do not have to be sold only the Jewish Community, and people who purchase tickets do not have to be at the fete to still win a prize. We have from now until November to sell tickets, so we have lots and lots of time to make lots and lots of money!!!!

There will also be a volunteer register at Chabad for you to sign your name to help out in some way, either before the day or on the actual day . Please have a look and see if there is something small you and your family would be willing to help out with. Again we are looking for all the help we can get.

Thank you for your support, we look forward to hearing from many of you really soon!!!
HAPPY TICKET SELLING!!!!!!
