B"H

Does your son see your face?

In this week's Parsha Joseph was presented with a great challenge. He was in a situation where he could sin with his master's wife and no one would ever know. One thing stopped him, the vision of his righteous father's face, Jacob.

What is so special about this?

Jacob was a father who cared dearly for his children. He had created a wonderful relationship Joseph. He endowed upon him good traits and a good sense of what is right. So strong was this revelation that when he was going to fulfill the temptations of his heart, he stopped and did what was the true nature of his father.

What does my son see when he sees my face? Will the sight of my face make him make the right decision?

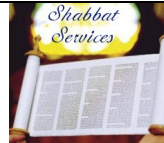

Have a great Shabbat.

Warm regards,

Rabbi Shalom White

Our Sages debate:
Should we begin Chanukah with one light and end with eight?
or begin with eight lights
and each night take one away?

They conclude: We add a light each night,
to signify that in Judaism
we always move forward.

Shabbat Shalom everyone!
